

BACK TO SCHOOL

Insight School of Interior Design has opened its doors in Hong Kong, offering everything from one-day courses up to a year's diploma for those with a passion for creating the perfect space. Founder Eve Mercier's goal was to create a school inspired by her own training in Europe, with practical and inspiring courses. Eve, formerly the leading interior designer at Candy & Candy in London, offers pupils her own expertise as well as that of visiting mentors including Cartier boutiques designer Bruno Moinard, and Joyce Wang, winner of the best restaurant design in 2013. insightschoolhk.com ▲

CONTEMPORARY SHOWCASE

The fourth Asia Contemporary Art Show returns from 15 to 18 May with a line up of 100 galleries from 18 countries. Held at the Conrad, the show will showcase over 3,000 stunning and covetable works spanning original paintings, limited editions, sculpture and photography. For collectors, buyers or just browsers, this is one of the best places to see and buy a diverse collection of art at accessible prices. asiacontemporaryart.com | hkticketing.com ▲

WORD ART

C+S Art Prints are now available in Hong Kong. These personalised word-art canvases are each designed with the places, dates and people that are most important to you. Each canvas is created individually, so no two designs are alike, and they're printed on museum-grade imported cotton canvases specially treated to weather the elements for a lifetime. The canvases come stretched on an extra-deep wooden frame, ready to hang – great for an anniversary, birthday or leaving present for the person who has “everything”. So get together a list of your favourite memories and visit www.csartprints.com to begin designing your personalised work of art. (Select Hong Kong from the country menu.) Special offer: Mention this article from 1 April to 15 May and receive an additional 10-percent discount of all canvases delivered within Hong Kong. csartprints.com
