

Parkview is building a new hotel in China. We are looking for a Junior designer to join the in-house design team to work on this project. This is an ideal opportunity to work on an exciting hotel project alongside the architect and senior designers.

Job Responsibilities:

- Sourcing and procuring samples from China for materials specifications
- Labelling and sorting materials
- Sourcing furniture and lighting suppliers in China
- Sourcing fabrics and wallpapers from China
- Creating fabric and material schemes for room suites and common areas
- Creating FF&E specification documents for room suites and common areas

Qualifications, Experience and Skills

- Mandarin and English speaking essential
- Diploma in Interior Design
- Relevant experience preferably with hotel design projects would be beneficial but not essential
- Proficiency in AutoCAD, Vectorworks and Sketch Up would be beneficial but not essential
- Initiative, creativity and self-motivation
- Happy to work independently or within a group, and work under tight schedule

Job details

- Part time – 3 days a week
- Salary is negotiable according to previous experience
- 4 month contract with possibility of extension

Contact: Monique 6779 3791, monique@moniqueinterior.com